STRATEGIC GOAL 6
WORKFORCE

CHANGING WORKFORCE COMPOSITION

According to data from the U.S. Census Bureau, the U.S. population is undergoing a major change. In 2050, the Census Bureau estimates that less than 46 percent of the population will be non-Hispanic white, 15 percent will be African American, the Hispanic population will grow to 30 percent, and the Asian and Pacific Islander group will grow to 9.2 percent. Government agencies, including ATF, will market their careers to diverse demographic groups and increase their cultural diversity and understanding.

A new generation of workers will soon enter the Federal government. “Generation Y” consists of 75 million people who will enter the workforce in this decade. To attract, develop, and retain members of this talent pool and prepare them to become future leaders, government agencies, including ATF, need to modify workplace cultures, programs, and policies to meet their changing demands.

ATF’s CURRENT WORKFORCE ACTIVITIES

Our workforce is ATF’s core resource. Execution of our mission requires the skill and commitment of everyone in ATF. Our workforce is highly skilled, motivated, and committed to the service of our nation.

Training and Professional Development: ATF provides a comprehensive integrated leadership development program to support current and future supervisors, managers, and executives in the continuous development and enhancement of their leadership competencies. Employees have opportunities to enhance specific job skills and pursue programs are used to hire veterans and persons with disabilities. Programs for veterans include the Veterans’ Preference, Veterans Recruitment Appointment (VRA) authority, and the Veterans Employment Opportunities Act (VEOA). The “Operation Warfighter” program allows ATF to further focus on veterans’ opportunities.

Alignment to DOJ’s Strategic Plan: DOJ’s mission is “...to enforce the law and defend the interests of the United States according to the law; to ensure public safety against threats foreign and domestic; to provide Federal leadership in preventing and controlling crime; to seek just punishment for those guilty of unlawful behavior; and to ensure fair and impartial administration of justice for all Americans.”

The three primary DOJ strategic goals for FY 2007 - FY 2012 are:

- Prevent terrorism and promote the Nation’s security;
- Prevent crime, enforce Federal laws, and represent the rights and interests of the American people; and
- Ensure the fair and efficient administration of justice.

As a critical component of DOJ, ATF shares this vision and dedication to the American people and is committed to meet the strategic goals set forth by DOJ. Furthermore, in accordance with the DOJ Management Initiatives and Human Capital guidance, ATF will focus its resources and attention on business modernization and workforce strategies. The figure below illustrates the alignment of ATF’s strategic goals with DOJ’s strategic goals.

Hiring Programs: ATF seeks to know the communities we serve by incorporating their diversity and cultures into our organization. ATF embraces the distinct role that diversity serves in achieving our success. ATF uses four types of hiring programs to ensure that ATF has an avenue to acquire the highest qualified individuals. ATF uses Merit Promotion to recruit and select candidates with civil service competitive status. Delegated Examining Unit (DEU) authority allows ATF to hire candidates who do not have competitive status, either within or outside of government. Special agents and IOIs are hired under Excepted Service authority. Special hiring
The Office of Strategic Management (OSM) facilitated the development of this Strategic Plan, which is an ongoing Bureauwide effort. Key players in this endeavor include members of the Strategic Leadership Team (SLT), which consists of ATF’s Director, Deputy Director, Assistant Directors, and Deputy Assistant Directors. In addition, cross-functional Strategic Priority Action Committees (SPACs), comprised of senior level managers and subject matter experts, developed the strategic objectives and strategies linked to the strategic goals. Internal stakeholders at headquarters and the field reviewed this Plan, and their input is incorporated into the Plan.

ATF has institutionalized a management process and structure to implement the Strategic Plan. The Strategic Management Approach is a roadmap to measure progress towards meeting the plan, link the budget to strategic goals, and adjust the plan according to changing external conditions and priorities.

Using the Strategic Management Approach, the SLT, SPACs, and OSM work in coordination to move through all five steps in the cycle. The SPACs develop action plans for all of the goals, strategic objectives, and strategies. These action plans identify the operational processes, skills and technology, human capital information, and other resources required to implement the goals and strategies.

The aforementioned groups continue to oversee the implementation of the Strategic Plan to ensure that ATF’s actions are in line with its stated goals. ATF continually strives towards measurable results that reduce violent crime and make America safer.
Strategic Goal: Workforce
Attract, develop, and retain an expert workforce to execute the ATF mission in the emerging business environment.

Performance Goal Statement:
Attract, develop, and retain an expert workforce to execute the ATF mission.

Strategic Objective 1: Implement a comprehensive recruitment strategy focused on selecting a diverse and committed workforce.

Strategies

Strategic Objective 3: Streamline the complaint and disciplinary processes to fairly and expeditiously address and resolve workplace disputes.

Performance Goal Statement:
Attract, develop, and retain an expert workforce to execute the ATF mission.

Strategic Objective 4: Develop and implement succession strategies to transfer knowledge to and foster leadership in the next generation.

Strategies
1. Increase Monitoring, Training, and Development Opportunities: Develop the next generation of ATF leaders through focused mentoring, training, and developmental opportunities.
2. Implement Knowledge Transfer and Succession Planning: Improve our retirement and attrition forecasting capability and align the results to a targeted recruitment plan and a process for transferring knowledge.
3. Strengthen Relationships with Former ATF Employees: Strengthen relationships with retirees and other former ATF personnel to encourage their participation in recruitment, mentoring, training, and advocacy.
APPENDIX A: POLICY ENVIRONMENT

ATF’s operations are guided by Federal statutes, the Code of Federal Regulations, formal memoranda of understanding, international partnerships, and policy guidance. Federal statutes, such as the GCA, the NFA, the Arms Export Control Act, and sections of the Organized Crime Control Act of 1970 (including the Safe Explosives Act) govern ATF’s critical mission activities. ATF enforces these statutes and regulations with a multidisciplined and balanced approach, in accordance with guidance issued by DOJ.

In accordance with Presidential Directives, ATF will continue to play a key role in shaping the national response to domestic incidents and coordinating efforts with partners to ensure safety for all Americans.
