

BRADY LAW

STATES IN WHICH THE FBI CONDUCTS NICS CHECKS FOR ALL FIREARMS TRANSACTIONS

Alabama	Kentucky	Ohio
Alaska	Louisiana	Oklahoma
American Samoa	Maine	Puerto Rico
Arizona	Massachusetts	Rhode Island
Arkansas	Minnesota	South Carolina
Delaware	Mississippi	South Dakota
District of Columbia	Missouri	Texas
Guam	Montana	Vermont
Idaho	New Mexico	West Virginia
Indiana	North Dakota	Wyoming
Kansas	Northern Mariana Islands

STATES THAT ACT AS THE POINT OF CONTACT (POC) FOR ALL FIREARMS TRANSACTIONS

California	Illinois	Pennsylvania
Colorado	Nevada	Tennessee
Connecticut	New Jersey	Utah
Georgia	Oregon	Virginia

STATES WHERE THE PERMIT ALTERNATIVE APPLIES TO ALL FIREARMS TRANSACTIONS

Hawaii Virgin Islands

STATES THAT ACT AS A PARTIAL POINT OF CONTACT (POC) FOR NICS CHECKS

Florida	Florida Department of Law Enforcement for all firearms, except licensees may contact the FBI for certain pawn transactions.
Iowa	Permit POC for handguns. FBI for long guns.
Maryland	Maryland State Police for handguns and assault weapons. FBI for long guns and pawn redemptions.
Michigan	Permit POC for handguns. FBI for long guns.
Nebraska	Permit POC for handguns. FBI for long guns.
New Hampshire	New Hampshire Department of Safety for handguns. FBI for long guns.
New York	Permit POC for handguns. FBI for long guns.
North Carolina	Permit POC for handguns. FBI for long guns.
Washington	Chief law enforcement officer for handguns. FBI for long guns and pawn redemptions.
Wisconsin	Wisconsin Department of Justice for handguns. FBI for long guns.

The most up-to-date information regarding Point of Contact states can be found on the ATF website at:
http://www.atf.gov/firearms/bradylaw/poc_chart.htm