

ATF Media Advisory

Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives
Boston Field Division

8:30 a.m.
Monday, April 2, 2007

ATF TO OVERSEE EXPLOSIVES DETECTION CANINE TRAINING
Agency's Acting Director to Open Week-Long Seminar

WARWICK, R.I. – Acting Director Michael J. Sullivan of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) will make the opening remarks at 8:30 a.m., Monday, April 2, at the 2nd Annual Explosive Detector Dog Seminar in Rhode Island. ATF will administer the National Odor Recognition Test to the explosives detection canines attending the seminar.

The event is hosted by the Rhode Island Fire Marshal's Office, Rhode Island State Police, Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Federal Protective Service and the Rhode Island Airport Corporation Police. Canine teams from the United States, Canada and Bermuda will be in attendance.

WHO: ATF Acting Director Michael J. Sullivan

WHAT: Photograph and interview opportunity

WHEN: Monday, April 2, at 8:30 a.m.

WHERE: Crown Plaza Hotel
Providence/Warwick Airport,
801 Greenwich Avenue
Warwick, Rhode Island 02886.

Media interested in attending and filming should contact ATF SA/PIO James McNally at 617 557-1292 (work) or 617 719-7562 (cell).

###