

GUILTY PLEAS

Defendant	Charge	Plea Details
Rodney Cox	Violent Crime in Aid of Racketeering	Admits to being member of an association in fact enterprise; Admits that on 4/27/02, at 2:16 am at Harrah's Laughlin, he used a wrench to strike Benjamin Silva. Plea memo calls for binding 30-month sentence.
Maurice Eunice	Violent Crime in Aid of Racketeering	Admits to being member of an association in fact enterprise; Admits that on 4/27/02, at 2:16 am at Harrah's Laughlin, he fired a handgun at and struck Enrique Munoz. Plea memo calls for binding 30-month sentence.
Raymond Foakes	Violent Crime in Aid of Racketeering	Admits to being member of an association in fact enterprise; Admits that on 4/27/02, at 2:16 am at Harrah's Laughlin, he kicked an unknown individual in a violent altercation. Plea memo calls for binding 21-month sentence.
James Hannigan	Violent Crime in Aid of Racketeering	Admits to being member of an association in fact enterprise; Admits that on 4/27/02, at 2:16 am at Harrah's Laughlin, he stabbed Roger Pinney during a violent altercation with Pinney and Benjamin Leyva. Plea memo calls for binding 30-month sentence.

Dale Leedom Violent Crime in Aid of Racketeering Admits to being member of an association in fact enterprise; Admits that on 4/27/02, at 2:16 am at Harrah's Laughlin, he stabbed Benjamin Leyva during a violent altercation. Plea memo calls for binding 27-month sentence.

Calvin Schaefer Violent Crime in Aid of Racketeering Admits to being member of an association in fact enterprise; Admits that on 4/27/02, at 2:16 am at Harrah's Laughlin, during a violent altercation with Richard Nolan and Benjamin Leyva, he fired a handgun at and struck Richard Nolan. Plea memo calls for binding 51-month sentence.