

G.R.E.A.T.

Gang Resistance Education and Training Program

Est. 1991

The G.R.E.A.T. program is a gang and delinquency prevention program provided to middle and elementary school students by ATF and the program is sponsored by Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP). It is taught by local law enforcement and specially trained ATF agents.

PROGRAMS

Elementary School G.R.E.A.T. Program

Middle School G.R.E.A.T. Program

G.R.E.A.T. Summer Component

G.R.E.A.T. Families Training

G.R.E.A.T. Officer Training

G.R.E.A.T. Program Statistics

2015

1,076
Instructors

5,762
Participating
Schools

251,449
Participants

21,449
Graduating
Classes

Since 1991

14,201
Instructors

2,774
Participating
Agencies

7,000,000+
Graduating
Participants

REGIONS AND TRAINING SITES

Southeast - Miami-Dade School Police Department

Midwest Atlantic - La Crosse, WI Police Department

Western - Portland, OR Police Department

Southwest - Phoenix, AZ Police Department

