Section 30-7-2.2. Unlawful possession of a handgun by a person; exceptions; penalty.

A. Unlawful possession of a handgun by a person consists of a person knowingly having a handgun in his possession or knowingly transporting a handgun, except when the person is:

(1) in attendance at a hunter's safety course or a handgun safety course;
(2) engaging in the use of a handgun for target shooting at an established range authorized by the governing body of the jurisdiction in which the range is located or in an area where the discharge of a handgun without legal justification is not prohibited by law;
(3) engaging in an organized competition involving the use of a handgun;
(4) participating in or practicing for a performance by an organization that has been granted exemption from federal income tax by the United States commissioner of internal revenue as an organization described in § 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954 [26 USCS § 501(c)(3)], as amended or renumbered;
(5) legal hunting or trapping activities;
(6) traveling, with an unloaded handgun in his possession, to or from an activity described in Paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4) or (5) of this subsection; or
(7) on real property under the control of the person's parent, grandparent or legal guardian and the person is being supervised by his parent, grandparent or legal guardian.

B. A person who commits unlawful possession of a handgun by a person is guilty of a misdemeanor.

C. As used in this section:

(1) "person" means an individual who is less than 19 years old; and
(2) "handgun" means a loaded or unloaded pistol, revolver or firearm which will or is designed to or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosion and the barrel length of which, not including a revolving, detachable or magazine breech, does not exceed 12 inches.

Section 30-7-2.3. Seizure and forfeiture of a handgun possessed or transported by a person in violation of unlawful possession of a handgun by a person.

A. A handgun is subject to seizure and forfeiture by a law enforcement agency when the handgun is possessed or transported by a person in violation of the offense of unlawful possession of a handgun by a person.

B. The provisions of the Forfeiture Act [31-27-1 NMSA 1978] apply to the seizure, forfeiture and disposal of a handgun subject to forfeiture pursuant to Subsection A of this section.

Section 30-7-7.1. Unlawful sale of a firearm without a background check.

A. Unlawful sale of a firearm without a background check consists of the sale of a firearm without conducting a federal instant background check subject to the following:

(1) if the buyer of a firearm is not a natural person, then each natural person who is authorized by the buyer to possess the firearm after the sale shall undergo a federal instant background check before taking possession of the firearm;
(2) a prospective firearm seller who does not hold a current and valid federal firearms license issued pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 923(a) shall arrange for a person who does hold that license to conduct the federal instant background check. A federal firearms licensee shall not unreasonably refuse to perform a background check pursuant to this paragraph; and
(3) a person who holds a current and valid federal firearms license issued pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 923(a) may charge a fee not to exceed thirty-five dollars ($35.00) for conducting a background check pursuant to this section.

B. The provisions of Subsection A of this section do not apply to the sale of a firearm:

(1) by or to a person who holds a current and valid federal firearms license issued pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 923(a);
(2) to a law enforcement agency;
(3) between two law enforcement officers authorized to carry a firearm and certified pursuant to federal law or the Law Enforcement Training Act [Chapter 29, Article 7 NMSA 1978]; or
(4) between immediate family members.
C. As used in this section:

(1) "consideration" means anything of value exchanged between the parties to a sale;

(2) "federal instant background check" means a background check that meets the requirements of 18 U.S.C. Section 922(t) and that does not indicate that a sale to the person receiving the firearm would violate 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g) or 18 U.S.C. Section 922(n) or state law;

(3) "firearm" means any weapon that will or is designed to or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosion; the frame or receiver of any such weapon; or any firearm muffler or firearm silencer; and includes any handgun, rifle or shotgun; but shall not include an antique firearm as defined in 18 U.S.C. Section 921(16), a powder-actuated tool or other device designed to be used for construction purposes, an emergency flare or a firearm in permanently inoperable condition;

(4) "immediate family member" means a spouse, parent, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, great-grandchild, niece, nephew, first cousin, aunt or uncle; and

(5) "sale" means the sale, delivery or passing of ownership, possession or control of a firearm for a fee or other consideration, but does not include temporary possession or control of a firearm provided to a customer by the proprietor of a licensed business in the conduct of that business.

D. Each party to an unlawful sale in violation of this section may be separately charged for the same sale.

E. Each firearm sold contrary to the provisions of this section constitutes a separate offense under Subsection A of this section.

F. Two or more offenses may be charged in the same complaint, information or indictment and shall be punished as separate offenses.

G. Whoever violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 30-7-16. Firearms or destructive devices; receipt, transportation or possession by a felon; penalty.

A. It is unlawful for a felon to receive, transport or possess any firearm or destructive device in this state.

B. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a fourth degree felony and shall be sentenced in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Sentencing Act ; provided that the violation of and the sentence imposed pursuant to this subsection shall be increased to a violation of and the sentence for a third degree felony if the person has previously been convicted of a capital felony or a serious violent offense provided in Subparagraphs (a) through (n) of Paragraph (4) of Subsection L of Section 33-2-34 NMSA 1978.

C. As used in this section:

(1) except as provided in Paragraph (2) of this subsection, "destructive device" means:

(a) any explosive, incendiary or poison gas: 1) bomb; 2) grenade; 3) rocket having a propellant charge of more than 4 ounces; 4) missile having an explosive or incendiary charge of more than 1/4 ounce; 5) mine; or 6) similar device;

(b) any type of weapon by whatever name known that will, or that may be readily converted to, expel a projectile by the action of an explosive or other propellant, the barrel or barrels of which have a bore of more than 1/2 inch in diameter, except a shotgun or shotgun shell that is generally recognized as particularly suitable for sporting purposes; and

(c) any combination of parts either designed or intended for use in converting any device into a destructive device as defined in this paragraph and from which a destructive device may be readily assembled.

(2) The term "destructive device" does not include any device that is neither designed nor redesigned for use as a weapon or any device, although originally designed for use as a weapon, that is redesigned for use as a signaling, pyrotechnic, line throwing, safety or similar device;

(3) "felon" means a person convicted of a felony offense by a court of the United States or of any state or political subdivision thereof and:

(a) less than 10 years have passed since the person completed serving his sentence or period of probation for the felony conviction, whichever is later;

(b) the person has not been pardoned for the felony conviction by the proper authority; and

(c) the person has not received a deferred sentence; and
(4) "firearm" means any weapon that will or is designed to or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosion; the frame or receiver of any such weapon; or any firearm muffler or firearm silencer. "Firearm" includes any handgun, rifle or shotgun.

H. Conditions of release.

(6) Before releasing a person arrested for or charged with a crime involving domestic violence or a violation of an order for protection, the court shall make findings on the record, if possible, concerning the determination made in accordance with subsection 7-4-8H.(1) and may impose conditions of release or bail on the person to protect the alleged victim of domestic violence and to ensure the appearance of the person at a subsequent court proceeding. The conditions may include, but are not limited to:

(c) An order prohibiting the respondent from using or possessing a firearm or other weapon specified by the court.

Section 7-4-9. Civil orders of protection.

D. Temporary ex parte orders of protection.

(2) The court may grant the following relief without notice and hearing in an order for protection issue ex parte:

(c) Prohibit the respondent from using or possessing a firearm or other weapon specified by the court;

Section 7-4-5. Definitions.

The definitions in this section shall be liberally construed so as to protect all persons who are subjected to abuse and violence. As used in this chapter the following terms shall have the following meanings:

Domestic violence or abuse means the occurrence of or any attempt to cause one (1) or more of the following acts by the perpetrator:

(1) Any act that causes any bodily injury to or physical harm to another person;
(2) Engaging in a course of conduct, physically or verbally, that is intended to cause a person to feel terrorized or seriously threatened that death, bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint may result;
(3) Inflicting severe emotional distress through the use of threats, intimidation, or extreme ridicule to inflict humiliation and emotional suffering upon another person;
(4) Causing another person to engage involuntarily in sexual activity by force, threat of force or duress;
(5) Harassing or stalking another person through repeated actions or communications, by phone or by any other means, intended to intimidate, humiliate, shame, degrade or cause fear in another person;
(6) Coercing a person through force, intimidation, threatening words, actions, or CI weapon to force a person to:
   (a) Engage in conduct which the person has a right to abstain from; or
   (b) Abstain from conduct which the person has a right to engage in.
(7) Causing damage to property for the purpose of intimidating or attempting to control the behavior of another person; and
(8) Engaging in any conduct that constitutes an offense under the Laguna Law and Order Code towards a person defined as a victim in this chapter.

Victim means any of the following persons who have been affected by domestic violence or abuse as defined in this section:

(1) Any current or former family or household member of the abuser;
(2) Any person involved in, or formerly involved in, an intimate relationship with the abuser, including:
   (a) Persons who are current or former spouses or domestic partners;
   (b) Persons who have a child, including an unborn child, in common;
   (c) Persons who are living together or have lived together; and
   (d) Persons who are involved or have been involved in a sexual or otherwise intimate, ongoing dating relationship including persons who are identified in the community as boyfriend and girlfriend regardless of age or sexual orientation.

(3) Any children of a person in a relationship that is described herein;

(4) Any person who is related by blood, or formerly related by law to the abuser by marriage as recognized by the Pueblo of Laguna.

Section 7-4-11. Firearms disqualification.

A. Purpose. The purpose of this section is to prohibit any person from possessing a firearm who has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor offense of domestic violence/abuse, as defined under section 7-4-5 of this Family Protection Code, or under Pueblo, state or federal law, including any person who is subject to an order of protection based upon a finding that the person represents a credible threat of violence to the victim, under Pueblo, state or federal law.

B. Unlawful possession of a firearm. It shall be unlawful for any person to possess a firearm who:
   (1) Is subject to any court order from a court of competent jurisdiction that restrains such person from harassing, stalking or threatening any person defined in section 7-4-5, or engaging in any other conduct that would place any person defined in section 7-4-5 in reasonable fear of bodily injury, and provided that the order:
      (a) Was issued after a hearing of which such person received actual notice and had the opportunity to participate;
      (b) Includes a finding that such person represents a credible threat to the physical safety of such household or family member; or
      (c) By its terms explicitly prohibits the use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force against such person defined in section 103(4).
   (2) Has been convicted in state, federal or Pueblo Court of any crime involving domestic violence/abuse, as defined in section 7-4-5 of this chapter, which involved the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of physical force; or the threatened use of a deadly weapon against any person defined in section 7-4-5.

C. Violations. Violation of this chapter shall result in a sentence of not less than one hundred twenty (120) days of mandatory jail, and a maximum fine of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00). Any related domestic violence sentences for a violation of this section and any other section of the Family Protection Code shall be served consecutively.
