Additional Information

Applications for restoration of explosives privileges must include the following information where applicable. Please note that any record or document of a court or other government entity or official required to be furnished as indicated below shall be certified by the court or other government entity or official as a true copy.

- (1) A “conviction” of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year is determined under Federal, not State law. A person remains “convicted” of an offense for purposes of the Federal explosives laws despite issuance of a State pardon, expunction, set aside, or restoration of civil rights. In the case of an applicant having been convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, a certified copy of the indictment or information on which the applicant was convicted, the judgment of conviction or record of any plea of nolo contendere, or plea of guilty or finding of guilt by the court must be provided.
- (2) In the case of an applicant under indictment, a certified copy of the indictment or information must be provided.
- (3) In the case of an applicant who has been adjudicated a mental defective or committed to a mental institution, the following must be provided with your application: a certified copy of the order of a court, board, commission or other lawful authority that made the adjudication or ordered the commitment; any petition that sought to have the applicant so adjudicated or committed; any medical records reflecting the reasons for commitment and diagnoses of the applicant and any documentation showing that applicant has been determined by a court, board, commission, or other lawful authority showing the applicant has been restored to mental competency and to be no longer suffering from a mental disorder and to have all rights restored.
- (4) In the case of an applicant who has been required by a court or other lawful authority to undergo a mental health evaluation or treatment, please provide a certified copy of any order(s) issued by a court, or any other record (such as a police report) which authorized your admission to a mental health facility for evaluation or treatment.
- (5) In the case of an applicant who has been subject to an order by a court or other lawful authority prohibiting your receipt or possession of firearms, please provide a certified copy of any such order.
- (6) In the case of an applicant who has been discharged from the Armed Forces under dishonorable conditions, a certified copy of the applicant’s Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (Department of Defense Form 214), Charge Sheet (Department of Defense Form 458), and final court martial order must be provided.
- (7) In the case of an applicant who, having been a citizen of the United States, has renounced his or her citizenship, a certified copy of the formal renunciation of nationality before a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States in a foreign state, or before an officer designated by the Attorney General when the United States was in a state of war, must be provided. (See 8 U.S.C. 1481(a)(5) and (6))
- (8) In the case of an applicant who is an alien, the following must be provided with your application: documentation that the applicant is an alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States; certification from the applicant including the applicant’s US-issued alien number or admission number, country/countries of citizenship, and immigration status, and certifying that the applicant is legally authorized to work in the United States, or other purposes for which possession of explosives is required; certification from an appropriate law enforcement agency of the applicant’s country of citizenship stating that the applicant does not have a criminal record; and, if applicable, certification from a Federal explosives licensee or permittee or other employer stating that the applicant is employed by the employer and must possess explosive materials for purposes of employment. These certifications must be submitted in English.

Privacy Act Information

The following information is provided pursuant to Sections 3 and 7(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974:

1. Authority. Solicitation of this information is made pursuant to 18 U.S.C., Chapter 40. Disclosure of this information by the applicant is mandatory if the applicant wishes to seek relief from disabilities, i.e., restoration of explosives privileges.
2. Purposes. To determine whether the applicant is eligible to apply for relief from disabilities under 18 U.S.C. 845(b); and to determine whether the restoration of privileges should be granted.
3. Routine Uses. The information will be used by ATF to make the determinations set forth in paragraph 2. In addition, the information may be disclosed to other Federal, State, foreign and local law enforcement and regulatory agency personnel to verify information on the application and to aid in the performance of their duties with respect to the regulation of explosives. (See 68 Federal Register 3551.)
4. Effects of Not Supplying the Information Requested. Failure to supply complete information will delay processing and may cause denial of the application.
5. Disclosure of Social Security Number. Disclosure of the individual’s social security number is voluntary. Solicitation of this information is made pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 845(b), and E.O. 9397, Nov. 22, 1943, and may be used to verify the identity of the applicant.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

This request is in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The information is required in order to determine whether or not explosives privileges may be restored. It is used to conduct an investigation to establish if it is likely that the applicant will act in a manner dangerous to public safety or contrary to public interest. The information is required in order to restore privileges under 18 U.S.C. 845(b).

The estimated average burden associated with this collection of information is 30 minutes per respondent or recordkeeper, depending on individual circumstances. Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and suggestions for reducing this burden should be addressed to Reports Management Officer, Document Services Branch, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, Washington, DC 20226.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless a currently valid OMB control number.
