	Delay Being Granted an Interim Security Clearance. I have read and understand the risk associated with being granted an interim security clearance prior to full completion and adjudication of my BI. Although I am interested in an employment opportunity with ATF, I would like to delay an interim security clearance and await full completion and adjudication of the BI. I also understand that by delaying an interim security clearance, I will be unable to obtain a temporary NSI certification or access to ATF information, information technology system, and/or unescorted access to ATF facilities.

Section B - ATF Sponsor
Instructions: ATF sponsors (e.g., contracting officer's representatives and human resources specialists) will complete Section B, and submit this document along with all other applicable personnel security forms to Personnel Security Division (PSD), to request approval for an applicant/candidate to be granted an interim security clearance. Prior to submitting this request, an ATF sponsor must consider whether an applicant/candidate for expeditious employment is eligible for an NSI classification. ATF sponsors should follow the guidance outlined in the ATF Sponsors Quick Reference Guides located on the ATF Connect, Office of Professional Responsibility and Security Operations, PSD page, when submitting a candidate for an interim security clearance.

Privacy Act Statement

The following information is provided pursuant to Sections 3 and 7(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a(e)(3)):

- 1. Authority. Solicitation of this information is made pursuant to Executive Orders 13764, 12968 and 13467. Disclosure of this information by the individual is voluntary.
- 2. Purpose. The purpose of this collection is to determine if the candidate for employment can be granted an interim security clearance prior to the completion and adjudication of the full background investigation.
- 3. Routine Uses. The information will be used by ATF to make a determination as set forth in the Purpose section of this Privacy Act Statement. This information becomes a part of the permanent personnel security record of all individuals and is included in Internal Security Record System Justice/ATF-006 (68 FR 3555-6) and is subject to all of the published routine uses of the system of records. Specifically, information may be disclosed by ATF to third parties while making a determination as to the individual's fitness for employment or service opportunities with ATF.
- 4. Effects of Not Supplying the Requested Information. Failure to supply complete information may require ATF to make a determination of the individual's eligibility for employment or service opportunities with ATF based on the information available.
- 5. Disclosure of Social Security Number (SSN). Disclosure of the individual's SSN is voluntary. Under Executive Order 9397, ATF has the authority to solicit an individual's SSN. The number may be used to verify the individual's identity.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

This request is in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The information collected is used by ATF to determine if the candidate for employment can be granted an interim security clearance prior to the completion and adjudication of the full background investigation. The appropriate ATF office (i.e., Personnel Security Division) will maintain a copy of this form. It will be used to document the authorized disclosure of the background investigation information.

The estimated average burden associated with this collection of information is 5 minutes per respondent, depending on individual circumstances. Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and suggestions for reducing this burden should be addressed to the Report Management Officer, Resource Management Staff, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, 99 New York Avenue, NE., Washington, DC 20226.

An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information that does not display a currently valid OMB control number.
