

REWARD

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives is offering up to a $10,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for multiple structure fires that were intentionally set throughout Baltimore on the evening of Monday, April 27, 2015. These incidents include but are not limited to the fires that occurred at the Mary Harkins Senior Center on North Chester Street, the CVS Pharmacies on Pennsylvania Avenue and West Franklin Street, and the Rite Aid Pharmacy on North Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard.

Anyone with information including video evidence of the incidents noted above is urged to immediately call ATF. Your identity can remain confidential. You can call 24 hours a day.

1-888-ATF-FIRE

(1-888-283-3473)

