The Grand Jury charges that:

COUNT 1

(Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Conspiracy)

General Allegations

1. At all relevant times, defendants DELOYD JONES, a/k/a "Puggy," BYRON JONES, a/k/a "Big Baby," and SIDNEY PATTERSON, a/k/a "Duda Man," and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, were members and associates of a criminal enterprise referred to as "Ride or Die" or "ROD" (herein referred to as "ROD"), an organization engaged in, among other things, conspiracy to distribute controlled substances, distribution of controlled substances, murder, conspiracy to commit murder, and attempted murder. At all relevant times, "ROD" operated in the Eastern District of Louisiana.

2. This organization has historically encompassed an area in the Eighth Ward of New Orleans, Louisiana and operates or operated primarily in this specified area. The boundaries of this area generally comprise North Miro Street on the north, St. Claude Avenue on the south, Elysian Fields Avenue on the west, and Franklin Avenue on the east.

The Racketeering Enterprise

3. The organization, including its leadership, membership, and associates, constitutes an "enterprise," as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact. The enterprise engaged in, and its activities affected, interstate and foreign commerce. The enterprise constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of the enterprise.

Purposes of the Enterprise

4. The purposes of the enterprise include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - a. Enriching the members and associates of the enterprise through, among other things, the control of and participation in the distribution of controlled substances in the territory controlled by the enterprise;
 - b. Preserving and protecting the power, territory and profits of the enterprise through the use of intimidation, violence, and threats of violence, including aggravated assault, robbery and murder;
 - c. Keeping victims, potential victims, and witnesses in fear of the enterprise and in fear of its members and associates through violence and threats of violence;
 - d. Providing information to members and associates of the enterprise, including those who were incarcerated for committing acts of violence, robbery, distribution of controlled substances, and other offenses; and
 - e. Providing assistance to members and associates of the enterprise who committed crimes for and on behalf of the enterprise in order to hinder, obstruct, and prevent law enforcement officers from identifying the offender or offenders, apprehending the offender or offenders, and prosecuting and punishing the offender or offenders.

Means and Methods of the Enterprise

5. Among the means and methods by which the defendants and their associates conducted and participated in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise, included but were not limited to, the following:

- a. Members of the enterprise and their associates conspired to, committed, attempted to, and threatened to commit shootings, various firearms offenses, and violent acts, including but not limited to murder, attempted murder, armed robbery, aggravated battery, illegal possession of firearms, and aggravated assault, in order to maintain and advance the goals of the enterprise, the individual conspirator's role within the enterprise, and to control the specific geographic area utilized and controlled by the conspirators;
- b. Members of the enterprise and their associates promoted a climate of fear through violence and threats of violence and sought retribution on anyone who showed them or the enterprise any disrespect;
- c. Members of the enterprise and their associates engaged in the distribution of controlled substances as a means to generate income. Members have been arrested repeatedly with crack cocaine, marijuana and heroin;
- d. Members of the enterprise and their associates possessed and utilized firearms to prevent competition from other drug dealers in and around the geographic area utilized and controlled by the conspirators;
- e. Members of the enterprise and their associates maintained and circulated a collection of firearms for use in criminal activity by other co-conspirators;
- f. Members of the enterprise and their associates used stolen vehicles in their efforts to avoid detection by law enforcement officers, distribute controlled substances, illegally possess firearms, perform violent acts, and intimidate witnesses;

- g. Members of the enterprise and their associates used telephones, even while in jail, to give direction and advice to each other in an effort to circumvent the criminal justice system, distribute controlled substances, illegally possess firearms, perform violent acts, and intimidate witnesses; and
- h. Members of the enterprise and their associates bragged about their illegal activity, such as their possession and use of firearms, to each other and made videos and took pictures of themselves posing with firearms and money in an effort to intimidate others in the community and to maintain or increase their position inside the enterprise.

Roles of the Defendants

6. The members of the enterprise would and did occupy the following roles, among others, in the enterprise:
- a. Defendant DELOYD JONES, a/k/a “Puggy,” acted as a leader, a distributor of controlled substances and gunman for the enterprise.
 - b. Defendants BYRON JONES, a/k/a “Big Baby,” and SIDNEY PATTERSON, a/k/a “Duda Man,” acted as distributors of controlled substances and gunmen for the enterprise.

The RICO Conspiracy Charge

7. Beginning in or about 2007, and continuing to on or about the date of the return of this Indictment, in the Eastern District of Louisiana and elsewhere, the defendants, DELOYD JONES, a/k/a “Puggy,” BYRON JONES, a/k/a “Big Baby,” and SIDNEY PATTERSON, a/k/a “Duda Man,” and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, each being persons employed by and associated with the criminal enterprise, as described in paragraphs 1 through 6 of this Count, which are realleged and incorporated herein, which enterprise engaged in and the activities of which affected interstate and foreign commerce, did knowingly and intentionally, combine, conspire, confederate and agree together and with each other to violate Title 18, United States Code, Section 1962(c), that is, to conduct and participate, directly and indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise through a pattern of racketeering activity, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1961(1) and 1961(5), consisting of multiple acts involving:

- a. Murder, in violation of Title 14, Louisiana Revised Statute 30.1 (Second Degree Murder);
 - b. Robbery, in violation of Title 14, Louisiana Revised Statute, Sections 64 and 64.1;
 - c. Dealing controlled substances, in violation of Title 40, Louisiana Revised Statutes, Sections 966 and 967; and multiple acts involving narcotics trafficking in violation of the following federal offenses:
 - d. narcotics trafficking, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 846.
8. It was a further part of the conspiracy that each defendant agreed that a conspirator would commit at least two acts of racketeering in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise.
