Title 18, U.S.C. § 923 and 27 CFR 478.41-78 provides the requirements for obtaining a Federal firearms license (FFL). These provisions require applicants for an FFL to certify, among other things, that the firearms business or activity will be conducted in compliance with State and local law.

The purpose of this application is to require a licensee who moves the licensed premises to a different location during the term of an existing license to certify that the firearms business or activity at the new location will be conducted in compliance with State and local law. Each licensee submitting the ATF Form 5300.38, Application for an Amended Federal Firearms License, must send or deliver a completed copy of such application to the Chief Law Enforcement Officer (CLEO) of the locality in which the new premises are located, as required by § 923 (d)(1)(F)(iii).

1. Notice of the new location of the business or activity must be filed with ATF not less than 30 days prior to establishing the business or activity at the new premises. To allow for ample processing time, it is recommended ATF Form 5300.38 be submitted as soon as the new premises location is known.
2. TYPE or PRINT with ball-point pen and provide your signature on back of form. All attached sheets must:
 - a. Be identified at the top of each page with your license name and license number.
 - b. Refer to the question(s) being answered.
3. ATF Form 5300.38 must be executed (signed) by an existing responsible person (RP) on the license.
4. If you have questions relating to this application or to obtain an e-mail address for your state or district's examiner to submit your request electronically, please contact the ATF Federal Firearms Licensing Center toll free at 1-866-662-2750.
